THE CLINTON RESTAURANT

HOMEMADE ITALIAN CUISINE Babich Family Owned Since 1939

The Babich Family celebrates three generations of serving the Whitestone community and hopes you enjoy our hospitality at the Clinton. Thank you for your patronage.

For a time, in the mid-1800s, Whitestone was called Clintonville after DeWitt Clinton, a governor of New York who was instrumental in building the Erie Canal. Clinton was a Queens resident who summered in Whitestone.

Although our restaurant did not initially have a name, local residents referred to it as "The Clinton" and the name stuck. The building was constructed in 1901, housed a "speakeasy" saloon during Prohibition and is one of the oldest commercial sites in town.
